

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHURCH PENSION GROUP TO HOST ADDITIONAL CONVERSATION ON ITS VISION, FINANCES, AND WORK

NEW YORK, NY—January 6, 2022—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host an additional panel conversation with Bishop Thomas J. Brown, Chair of The Church Pension Fund Board of Trustees; Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President of CPG, and other CPG leaders, to answer questions related to its vision, finances, and work. This discussion is a continuation of a conversation with CPG’s senior leaders held in November 2021.

The event will take place on Wednesday, January 12, 2022, from 12:00 to 1:30 PM ET. All clergy, lay employees, volunteers, and lay leaders who serve the Church are invited to register at cpg.org/CPGconversation.

“We received great questions during our inaugural conversation last November, and we want to take this opportunity to answer them live. We also invite others into the conversation, to answer any additional questions they may have related to our finances, our vision and our work,” said Ms. Wold. “In a time of so much uncertainty, we want to assure our Church that CPG is taking the right steps to safeguard the financial strength of the organization so it can continue to serve the Church, as intended. We look forward to answering questions and offering insights into how we manage our finances, stay abreast of the evolving needs of the people and institutions we serve, and make key decisions about benefits, products, and services.”

The panel, which will be moderated by Patty Favreau, Chief Communications Officer, will also feature Frank Armstrong, Chief Operating Officer; the Rev. Clayton Crawley, Chief Church Relations Officer; Roger Sayler, Chief Investment Officer; and Ellen Taggart, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer.

In advance of the webinar, individuals are encouraged to view a replay of the inaugural conversation from November and review CPG’s 2021 Annual Report (www.cpg.org/annualreport2021). Through a series of videos, articles, photographs, and graphics, the Annual Report highlights CPG's commitment to serve as a stable presence for the Church even in the most turbulent of times.

About the Church Pension Group

The Church Pension Group (CPG) is a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church. It maintains three lines of business—benefits, insurance, and publishing. CPG provides retirement, health, life insurance, and related benefits for clergy and lay employees of The Episcopal Church, as well as property and casualty insurance and book and music publishing, including the official worship materials of the Church. Follow CPG on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, and LinkedIn. cpg.org

#

Media Contact:

C. Curtis Ritter
Senior Vice President
Head of Corporate Communications
212-592-1816
critter@cpg.org